

Riverbed Psychology Employment Opportunity

Riverbed Psychology is offering an opportunity for a skilled clinician to join the practice as an Independent Contract Therapist. This position would be a great fit for a therapist looking to engage in growth oriented community. Working at Riverbed Psychology would afford you the freedom of private practice without the hassle of administrative stress or the isolation of being in business alone. It's important to me that you feel your professional expertise is valued, therefore, your compensation will be accordingly competitive.

Riverbed Psychology Mission Statement

Riverbed Psychology is dedicated to honoring the dignity and human experience of every person with compassionate care. Riverbed Psychology is dedicated to promoting acceptance of self and to cultivating loving, positive, and healthy relationships. Riverbed Psychology is dedicated to destigmatizing mental health issues and to promoting the conversation about creating a healthier society for holistic wellness. Our therapists provide excellent therapeutic service to our clients. We prioritize both professional and personal growth for our clinicians. We are committed to cultivating a culture of inclusivity.

You can learn more about Riverbed Psychology at RiverbedPsychology.com.

My name is Miles Meason. I am a licensed psychologist who has been thriving in private practice since 2013. I work with individuals, couples, families, and groups. I have extensive training and experience in Emotionally Focused Therapy (EFT) and acceptance-based behavioral therapy models. I am a believer in therapy, community, and support. I am building Riverbed Psychology to create a cooperative, supportive, growth-oriented, and fun community of practitioners. I love engaging in mentorship and collaboration with fellow clinicians in order to provide the best possible client care. Personally, I love the outdoors and I spend much of my time exploring nature by running, rafting, kayaking and biking. Art, music and poetry speak to me and when I retire I plan to become a potter. I am currently exploring both self-compassion and mindfulness meditation practices and feel drawn to various types of thoughtful community experiences. I love the flexibility of my job and I want to give you that same personal freedom to choose the clients that you like to work with in a schedule that you love.

Position Title: Psychologist or Therapist (Independent Contract Therapist, Full Time or Part Time)

Qualifications/Skills:

- Ph.D or Psy.D in Clinical or Counseling Psychology
- Licensed in the state of Colorado
- Skilled and experienced therapist
- Independent, responsible and professional
- Current malpractice insurance
- Strength based and inclusive
- Strong Organizational Skills

Responsibilities:

- Provide therapeutic services to a variety of presenting concerns, ages and within multiple modalities (e.g. individual, couples, family, group). Experience not necessary in every modality listed.
- Demonstrate understanding of case conceptualization and formulation of therapy and assessment plans.
- Attend and participate in consultation meetings to provide and receive support regarding cases and grow in clinical skill and expertise.
- Maintain timely documentation of progress notes, treatment plans, and reports.
- Support and sustain a caseload with prompt responsiveness in correspondence with clients.
- Participate in networking as needed to grow and maintain desired caseload size.

This position can be both remote (tele-health) and in-person in Denver, CO. Office space will be provided and you can set your own schedule.

Please submit applications comprised of a letter of interest, description of your therapeutic approach and resume/CV to drmilesmeason@riverbedpsychology.com

Riverbed Psychology
303-276-9234
1557 N Ogden St. Suite 6
Denver, CO 80218
riverbedpsychology.com